

Historic Churches Stride & Ride

This annual sponsored event for the Shropshire Historic Churches Trust, and local churches, is on Saturday 10 September. Why not enjoy a day's exercise and benefit both your church and the Trust that has given some of our churches some very generous grants? A group of Striders and Riders, hoping to raise money for St. Mary's, Clunton, will leave the Crown Inn car park at 10.00am. For more details or to offer sponsorship contact Pat Harding 660169.

Should you wish to join, or sponsor, a group of cyclists supporting St. Cuthbert's, Clungunford please contact Gordon Schofield 660158

Clunbury VH gets a Makeover

During the holidays an army of volunteers, led by Barbara Freeman, set about painting and renovating Clunbury VH. Better storage has been provided for Clunbury Under 5s as they prepare for life after Amaryllis, new curtains have been made by Patti De Vaux, and light-weight folding tables have been ordered along with notice boards and other fixtures. A new cooker, which will be able to cook food, has been installed and while there is still more to do, with staging, lighting, projector screen and new surfaces in the kitchen all planned, the hall has certainly been given a lift.

I would particularly like to thank Barbara whose determination galvanised a disparate but willing army of mainly youngsters from in and around Clunbury into a focussed team who set about completing what was a bigger task than we realised at the start.

Two new members of the VH Committee have been appointed, Barbara and Hope Freeman, who replace Steve Howard and Sue Mason. Hope has also taken over the cleaning from Robbie Mason. I would like to thank all of them for the time and effort they have put into keeping the village hall going.

Phil Wright, Chairman

Letters of Appreciation

Dear Editors

Retirement of Barney Bell

It would indeed be remiss if we failed to record in these pages the retirement from Clunbury Parish of our much loved incumbent Barney Bell, who leaves here after eighteen years of dedicated ministry among us; he has been a tower of spiritual strength in many ways; his preaching was always realistic and convincing, ever reminding us of our Christian duties and obligations and of the importance of a sound relationship with God. His pastoral work was superb, regularly and conscientiously visiting sick parishioners in hospital, or at home in sickness or distress, or administering home Communion.

He influenced effectively and expertly the fortunes of Clunbury C. of E. Primary School; he involved himself fully in the social life of the Parish; in short he was a "Priest of the People", and we all at St Swithin's, Clunbury, wish him and Amaryllis every happiness in their retirement in Presteigne.

Closure of Aston Shop

Many readers of our Parish Post will have learned with dismay of the closure of Aston-on-Clun Village Shop. Our shock at this grievous loss must needs be subjugated to the more important necessity to pay the warmest tribute to Mrs Pamela Jennings, who came to Aston-on-Clun more than a quarter of a century ago and who has since then continuously run the Post Office and Store with conspicuous efficiency coupled with dedicated service - for which she was awarded the M.B.E.. The thanks of us all to Pam are heartfelt, and we wish her well.

Yours truly,
Raymond Savill

65th Purslow Sports, Show and Gymkhana

A dull, dry but cold Bank Holiday Monday did not deter competitors or spectators from attending and enjoying the 65th Purslow Show. The day began early in the Show Tent with Stewards helping competitors to stage their entries before the arrival of the judges at 10.00am. There were slightly fewer entries in the Flower Classes but this was more than made up for in the Garden Produce Classes, which included some magnificent leeks and a truly enormous marrow, exhibited by Richard Pefford. Cookery and Store Cupboard Classes attracted a large number of excellent entries including cakes from men and children (the Grimes family from Beambridge particularly seemed to be indulging in family rivalry), some of which were prize winners - the ladies obviously have competition! Handicraft and Photography Classes were up to their usual high standards and it was pleasing to see the return of entries from Clunbury School and the Under Fives Playgroup among the fantastic pieces of art and story writing in the Children's Classes.

Out on the field competitions to suit all ages and interests were in full swing the whole afternoon. The ever popular Dog Show was ably run as always by Ian Davies (sporting a wonderful pair of 'doggy' braces) and his helpers. The Equestrian events kept riders happy and the judges busy until late. Children also took part in Five-a-side football and various races - perhaps a future winner of the Hill Run might be among them! This event as usual attracted a very strong field of runners from clubs in the region, with Chris Rimmer first man home for the sixth time, well ahead of the field. Also competing were visitors to a local family, Peter and Alice, teenage children of Sebastian Coe, Olympic Gold Medallist and Chairman of the 2012 Olympic Committee.

The crowd was also entertained by the Welsh Axe Men, the Street Beatz dance troupe, demonstrations of sheep shearing (and catching when one made a run for it!) and a good turn out of vintage vehicles and engines.

Thanks to all the many people who work so hard to organise this great local event.

Clunton's Rainbow BBQ

A crowd of about 60 people defied the odd shower in true British fashion and dined outside at Clunton Village Hall. We were rewarded with a variety of tasty meat cooked on the barbeque by John Huffer, accompanied by a wonderful array of salads and followed by delicious puddings prepared by the ladies of the committee. The whole event was then topped off by the appearance of a rainbow! About £540 was raised for village hall funds. Thanks to all who worked so hard to make this such a successful and enjoyable event. (More photos can be seen, in colour, on the website – theparishpost.org). Sue Hill

Learn how to Save Lives

Sudden Cardiac Arrest kills more people in the UK than lung cancer, breast cancer and AIDS combined. The West Midlands Ambulance Service is providing free training in how to use the 7 Automated External Defibrillators that have been installed by the Clun Valley AED Scheme. Several local residents have already received training but more trained people are required if the Scheme is to be fully effective. The next training session will be at Everest Hall, Llanfairwaterdine on Saturday 24 September from 10.00am to 2.00pm. Successful Coffee Morning at Ashbeds

The rain stayed away and the gazebos stayed up at Dawn Parsonage's coffee morning on 13 August. A grand turnout enjoyed coffee in the garden, browsing the Cake & Home Produce stall and the Bring & Buy items and buying raffle tickets, raising the magnificent sum of £455.00 for Severndale School at Shrewsbury for children with learning difficulties.

Dawn would like to extend her thanks to family and friends for their support and to the generosity of local traders Cyril Bason, Sadds of Dorrington and Tanners Wine Merchants for kindly donating prizes for the raffle.

Operation Christmas Child 2011

It may seem a little early to be thinking of Christmas – but I already have the supplies of leaflets and posters to start off the Shoe Box campaign which is organised every year by Samaritan's Purse, an international Christian relief and development organisation.

In 2010, 1.12 million shoeboxes from the UK, packed with gifts, were distributed to disadvantaged children in 14 countries around the world, including 12,084 boxes from the Hereford warehouse bound for Ukraine and Bosnia. In 2011, our boxes will be going to Belarus, a country that was badly affected by the Chernobyl nuclear disaster.

I went to a meeting to listen to Nicolai Balbutski, who is the Distribution Co-ordinator in Belarus. He showed us videos and photographs of the shoeboxes arriving in his country in deep snow. Many of the boxes were loaded onto sledges to reach their destination. We watched a video of some of the children receiving them and he told us that, for most, it will be the only gift they receive and they are opened with so much excitement and joy. Hats and scarves, toys, pens and pencils, and even soap and toothbrushes bring a huge smile to their faces.

This year we are encouraging an Olympic theme and suggestions for gifts to put in your box include sports items such as balls, skipping ropes, baseball hats etc. Please will you help us to pack more boxes this year. Even if you feel you cannot pack a whole box yourself, you can give just a few items. If you can only let me have empty shoeboxes, that would be helpful – we need as many as we can find. Let us see if we can break all records this year and make 2011 a Christmas full of joy, reminding children in need that they have not been forgotten.

You can log on to www.operationchristmaschild.org to watch a video that should spur you on to get out shopping and packing that box.

For more information contact Pat Harding 660169. Thank you.

'Owling Success

Barn Owls have reared 3 young in the Kemp Valley; this is the first such success for 3 years. The owlets have now fledged from their man-made nest site and we hope for more sightings of Barn Owls in the coming winter.

Farewell Peal Rung

On 30 August, Clunbury church bells were rung in a quarter peal lasting about 45 minutes as a retirement compliment and farewell to Amaryllis and Barney Bell.

The ringing band comprised Amaryllis and Barney Bell, John Croxton, Roger Webb, and Helen and Alex Sharpe.

Alex Sharpe

Thanks from Barney and Amaryllis

Many, many thanks for all the kindness and generosity shown by everyone over the past few weeks. Our final services in three of the churches so far have been memorable and very moving, and your good wishes have been greatly appreciated. As I write (on 20 August), there are still three Sundays to go, but I do want to say now how grateful we are to you all.

Barney Bell
